

Proposed Speaker Aadya Dixit for Baal-Vatika on August 29

An excellent extempore speaker Aadya Dixit is just 24 years old and achiever of national presidential award "Balshree" in 2015 for creative writing. She has also received Madhya Pradesh state's highest award 'Governor Award'. With these two prestigious awards she has also won four international competitions of Debate or Elocution. Five national and 15 state awards.

She is Brand Ambassador of the state of Madhya Pradesh for Beti Bachao-Beti Padhao movement.

She has represented India in China in the International Youth Festival and winner of the international debate competition. She has been awarded with the Best anchor for Doordarshan and Best compere for Aksasvani. She is the youngest Undergraduate of M.P. and fifth in India.

Some more about the young girl:

- Outstanding Young person of the Year 2021 by JCI India.
- Nominated for Outstanding Young Female personality of Asia.
- Winner of the International Lokranga Mahotsav for Poetry of India.
- Sanskriti Visharad Vidushi Samman in All India Bhartiya Bhavbhooti Samaroh.
- Navodit Lekhika Samman by Madhya Pradesh Lekhak Sangh.
- Yuva Pratibha Samman by Baharampur University, Odisha.
- Bhasha Bhaskar by Vishwa Bhasah Academy.
- Rashtriya Bitiya Samman by the Ministry of Women and Child Development.
- Best Speaker in Pichakucha (an international event) on the topic of refugee crisis.
- Rajya Bal Pratibha Award by MP Government.
- Overall, 17 National awards, 28 State, 11 Zonal and total 1054 rewards.